SCHOOL OF LAW

RECOGNIZED BY BAR COUNCIL OF INDIA

BBA LL.B. (HONS.) (5-YEAR) LL.B. (HONS.) (3-YEAR) LL.M* (2-YEAR) *Proposed

School of law at ARKA JAIN University was established in the year 2019 to meet the growing demand for legal professionals in the wake of globalization and rapid expansion of India's economy.

The School is committed to shaping the next generation of legal professionals who are equipped to meet the evolving demands of the legal world.

The Bar Council of India (BCI), the apex body regulating legal education in India, has recognized the 5-year Integrated BBA LL.B. (Hons.) as well as the 3-year LL.B (Hons.) programs.

BUILDING A STRONG FUTURE THROUGH STRATEGIC COLLABORATIONS

Blending a strong academic foundation with practical training, these programs are designed to develop critical thinking, ethical values, and professional competence among students, preparing them for successful careers in law, business, governance, and beyond.

In partnership with the Centre of Rule of Law, Nepal, and the Consortium of NLU's, the School of Law is advancing legal education, strengthening the principles of the rule of law, and promoting cross-border academic collaboration. These meaningful alliances are designed to equip aspiring legal professionals with the expertise and global perspective needed to excel in an evolving legal landscape.

Note: The University is in the process of applying to the Bar Council of India for approval to introduce the LLM program from the academic session 2026–27. Admissions will commence only after receipt of the necessary regulatory approval. Details regarding the same will be notified separately.

In association with the Centre of Rule of Law, Nepal, the School of Law encourages knowledge-sharing, legal awareness, and a broader understanding of constitutional values and justice systems.

Our association with the Consortium of NLU's enhances academic collaboration, promotes legal research, and provides a platform for meaningful engagement with institutions of national repute.

BBA LL.B. (HONS.)

5-YEAR INTEGRATED PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION :

Embark on a transformative five-year journey that blends legal expertise with business acumen through the BCI-approved BBA LL.B. (Hons.) program. Designed for students who have completed their 10+2 education, this integrated program prepares aspiring legal professionals to thrive in an increasingly complex and dynamic global landscape where law and business intersect. The program meets all Bar Council of India (BCI) requirements and offers a unique interdisciplinary learning experience. LL.M* (MASTER OF LAWS)

*Proposed

The School of Law, ARKA JAIN University is introducing the Master of Laws (LL.M) programme as part of its vision to strengthen advanced legal education, academic inquiry, and research in the field of law.

The proposed programme is intended to provide law graduates with an opportunity to pursue higher learning, deepen their understanding of contemporary legal issues, and engage with emerging developments in the legal and regulatory landscape.

The LL.M programme is envisioned to foster advanced legal scholarship, analytical thinking, and research-driven learning, enabling students to explore complex legal questions with greater academic depth.

Through a rigorous and intellectually stimulating environment, the programme will aim to cultivate professionals who can contribute meaningfully to the legal profession, academia, public policy, and the justice delivery system.

The programme will focus on promoting critical legal analysis, interdisciplinary perspectives, and scholarly engagement with contemporary legal challenges, preparing graduates to navigate the evolving dynamics of law and governance in both national and global contexts.

ARKA JAIN University is currently in the process of applying to the Bar Council of India (BCI) for approval to introduce the LL.M programme.

Subject to the receipt of the necessary regulatory approval, the programme is proposed to be offered from the academic session 2026–27.

Further details regarding the programme, including its structure and admission process, will be notified separately upon receipt of the required approval from the Bar Council of India.

AJU NYAY SAMARTHAN CELL : BRIDGING LEGAL EDUCATION WITH SOCIAL IMPACT

The AJU Nyay Samarthan Cell (Legal Aid & Awareness Cell) plays a pivotal role in fostering legal awareness, social responsibility, and access to justice — both within the student body and the wider community. Functioning as a dynamic interface between academic learning and real-world legal practice, the Cell provides students with opportunities to engage in pro bono legal assistance, legal literacy initiatives, and community outreach. By facilitating legal education, guidance, and hands-on support, the Cell contributes to the personal and professional growth of students, while promoting the development of socially conscious and legally empowered citizens. Through these meaningful engagements, the AJU Nyay Samarthan Cell enriches the overall holistic legal education experience, preparing future lawyers to serve with competence, integrity, and a strong sense of public duty.

MOOT COURT SOCIETY : FOSTERING FUTURE ADVOCATES

The Moot Court Society at ARKA JAIN University is a vibrant, student-led initiative guided by dedicated faculty coordinators, committed to promoting a thriving moot culture within the School of Law. It serves as a dynamic platform for channeling students' passion for moot into a structured and progressive learning experience — a core value the University proudly upholds.

Beyond maintaining a robust internal moot ecosystem, the Society is entrusted with organizing the prestigious annual Intra Moot Court Competition — a flagship event that propels students into the heart of simulated legal battles. Participants engage in intensive legal research, draft compelling pleadings, develop strategic arguments, and present their cases before panels of seasoned judges and faculty mentors.

The primary goal of the Moot Court Society is to cultivate in students the essential skills of legal research, oral advocacy, and legal drafting — transforming them into well-rounded, competent mooters. A special focus is placed on training first-year students through comprehensive orientation programmes and introductory moot court sessions, ensuring that even the newest members of the School of Law quickly gain confidence in this critical aspect of legal education.

The Society's ambitions extend well beyond intra-college initiatives. It actively encourages and facilitates student participation in prestigious inter-college moot court competitions across India. Over the years, teams from the School of Law, ARKA JAIN University have built a proud tradition of excellence and have consistently earned accolades in top-tier competitions — a testament to the University's commitment to fostering practical legal skills and courtroom readiness.

Driven by a team of dedicated students and supported by experienced mentors, the Moot Court Society continues to push boundaries and inspire students to achieve new heights in the moot arena — laying a strong foundation for their future roles as advocates, leaders, and changemakers

INTRA MOOT COURT COMPETITION

Enhancing Capabilities | Expanding Perspectives | Honing Skills | Shaping Competent Legal Minds

The Intra Moot Court Competition organized by the Moot Court Society of ARKA JAIN University immerses students in the dynamic environment of simulated real-life legal battles. Participants engage in comprehensive legal research, draft well-structured pleadings, craft strategic arguments, and present their cases before seasoned judges and faculty mentors. This hands-on experience sharpens advocacy skills, builds courtroom confidence, and fosters a deeper understanding of legal practice — preparing students to excel in the profession.

The Moot Court Society also encourages active participation in national-level Inter-College Moot Court Competitions and similar events. Over the years, teams from the School of Law, ARKA JAIN University have built a proud tradition of excellence, regularly securing accolades and recognition at some of the most prestigious mootings events across India

LEARNING BY DOING

PRACTICE-BASED AND CLINICAL LEARNING

At the School of Law, legal education extends beyond classroom learning to emphasize hands-on legal training and experiential learning. Through activities such as moot courts, legal aid initiatives, case analysis, court visits, and internships, students gain real-world insights into the practice of law. This practice-oriented approach helps cultivate analytical thinking, advocacy skills, legal research capabilities, and professional ethics, preparing students to confidently navigate the legal profession.

Students actively engage in simulated court proceedings, legal drafting exercises, and community legal awareness programmes, which bridge the gap between academic learning and practical application.

AARAMBH – STUDENT INDUCTION PROGRAM

Aarambh is the seven-day induction-cum-orientation program designed to welcome and integrate new students into the AJU community within the first month of joining the university. Highlights of Aarambh include interactive sessions with batchmates, faculty members, university leaders, along with motivational talks, yoga and meditation sessions, and guidance from industry veterans. The program concludes with an outbound learning experience featuring interesting games and outdoor activities led by expert trainers.

LIBRARY

The School of Law Library at ARKA JAIN University serves as a comprehensive resource center that supports academic learning, research, and legal scholarship. The library houses a rich collection of law textbooks, reference materials, journals, reports, and legal commentaries, covering diverse areas of law. Students also have access to leading online legal research databases, enabling them to explore case laws, statutes, and legal literature from across jurisdictions.

INTEGRATED MODE OF TEACHING & LEARNING

The School of Law adopts an integrated and dynamic teaching-learning methodology that combines traditional legal instruction with modern pedagogical practices. This approach ensures a comprehensive academic experience that equips students with both conceptual clarity and practical insight.

The teaching model integrates classroom learning, practical exercises, research activities, and industry interactions, enabling students to develop a well-rounded understanding of the legal profession.

Through seminars, workshops, expert lectures, and collaborative learning platforms, students gain exposure to emerging legal trends and contemporary challenges.

SYNDICATE LEARNING & CASE-BASED TEACHING - Our approach integrates syndicate learning, case studies, regular assessments, and real-world industry projects, enabling students to deepen their knowledge in specific areas while gaining practical exposure to real-world scenarios.

WORKSHOPS, SEMINARS & INDUSTRY INTERFACES - Regular workshops, seminars, and guest lectures by legal practitioners, judges, academicians, and industry experts provide valuable professional insights.

INTERACTIVE TEACHING SESSIONS - A mix of classroom discussions, presentations, and collaborative learning activities encourages active participation and deeper understanding.

SPEAKER SERIES & EXPERT TALKS - Distinguished legal experts and professionals interact with students to share perspectives on contemporary legal issues and professional practice.

RESEARCH & ACADEMIC WRITING - Students are encouraged to engage in legal research, participate in conferences, and contribute to journals and publications.

EXHIBITS, PRESENTATIONS & ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES - Departments organize academic events, project presentations, and thematic displays that promote collaborative learning and innovation.

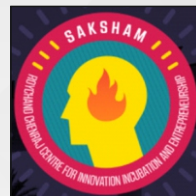

LEARNING FORUMS & ACADEMIC DISCUSSIONS - Interactive forums provide platforms for discussion on legal developments, public policy issues, and emerging areas of law.

The integrated approach ensures that students receive a well-rounded education, equipping them with the knowledge, skills, and real-world readiness to excel in their chosen fields.
